

---

Overview

This standard is about the skills and knowledge needed for you to develop professional networks in a food and drink environment. Building a wide network of colleagues internal and external to your organisation is a useful tool in aiding current work and in aiding career progression. It can also help in the fulfilment of organisational strategy and development plans. You will need the skills and knowledge to increase your professional networks through planning, using every day opportunities and using new technologies. You will also need the skills and knowledge to network effectively and conduct yourself in a way that promotes yourself and recognises differences in culture, methods of communication and working. This standard is for you if you work in food and drink manufacture and/or supply operations and are involved in developing professional networks in a food and drink environment.

---

Performance criteria

You must be able to:

Plan how to develop your professional networks

1.
determine the scope of your professional food and drink networks including colleagues internal and external to your organisation 2.
plan how you can develop your professional food and drink networks 3.
establish new technologies that are available to increase your professional food and drink networks 4.
invest time in determining innovative and useful sources of professional food and drink networks 5.
communicate your desire to expand your network of contacts with existing contacts and colleagues 6.
endeavour to exploit unplanned opportunities to develop professional food and drink networks Effective networking 7.
record contact details, business cards or any additional useful information to take advantage of informal and formal food and drink networking events internal and external to your organisation 8.
confirm while networking how you will communicate with a new contact 9.
conduct yourself in a way that promotes a positive image of yourself 10.
adapt your behaviour to take into account other people's culture, methods of communication and methods of working

-
11.
ascertain business opportunities while networking
Record information 12.
record information relating to the professional food and drink network in a secure and organised manner 13.
adhere to any commitments you make 14.
recommend other people or organisations if you are unable to maintain food and drink network obligations

---

Knowledge and understanding

You need to know and understand:

1.
how to determine the scope of your professional food and drink networks and why it is important to do so
  - 1.1 how to plan how you can develop your professional food and drink

IMPBG308

Develop professional networks in a food and drink environment

---

Developed by	Improve
Version Number	2
Date Approved	01 Jan 2019
Indicative Review Date	01 Jan 2024
Validity	Current
Status	Original
Originating Organisation	Improve
Original URN	impbg308s, impbg309k
Relevant Occupations	Administration, Associate Professionals and Technical oc, Business Management
Suite	Food Business Growth and Development
Keywords	Food; Drink; Manufacturing; Develop; Professional networks

---