

Overview

This standard is about planning the distribution of goods in the supply chain. It involves reviewing current and future distribution requirements and resolving any problems. It also includes reviewing the benefits and risks to distribution to inform the planning process.

* *

This standard is for supply chain practitioners. They could, for example, be in purchasing, freight logistics operations or transport management roles.

SFLSCM83

Plan the distribution of goods in the supply chain

Performance criteria

You must be able to: