

Overview

This standard is for those who assess fire risk for the responsible person, or their designated representative. It sets out the skills, knowledge and understanding for you to identify fire hazards on a premises, liaise with the responsible person or their designated representative, identify particular site characteristics, identify occupancy profiles and ensure compliance with legislation and regulatory requirements.

SFSFRA2

Undertake fire risk assessment

Performance criteria

You must be able to: